

WORKSHOPS

Ted Bowman – Autumn 2016 Schedule and Topics

- September 15 - West Berkshire Cruse – afternoon session for Cruse volunteers, “Resilience - It’s More, Much More than Typical Self-care / Compassion – It’s More, Much More than a Big Heart”; evening open session at Shaw House – “The Healing Power of Words /The Hurtful Power of Words”
- September 17 – Cruse Bristol, workshop “Renewing Grief Perspectives: The Intersection of The Tried and True AND The Recent and New”
- September 20 – Cruse Bereavement Care Master Class in London. “Shattered Dreams and Other Metaphors of Loss”
- September 21 - Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust, afternoon (Basingstoke) and evening sessions (Winchester) “Resilient Compassion: Working in Health Care Settings”
- September 23 – Claire House Children’s Hospice – Wirrel, near Liverpool. “Fostering Resilience for Challenging Situations: For Children, Families and Professionals
- September 24 – Word Therapy Centre - Brighton – “Facilitating Resiliency Through Writing Using Literary Resources, Writing and Stories for Therapeutic Work with Groups, Individuals and the Self”
- September 26 – Wakefield – Fieldhead Hospital – “Caring at the Intersections of Grieving, Mental Health and Spirituality: Caring for Self; Caring for Others; Caring with Others”
- September 28 – Leeds Bereavement Forum “Talking About Tough Stuff: Communicating About Grief and Loss”
- September 28 – Martin House Children’s Hospice – informal discussion with staff
- September 29 – October 2 – Lapidus Scotland at Whatton Lodge, near Edinburgh. “Extending and Deepening Facilitation Skills: A Residential Workshop for Experienced Facilitators of Reading & Writing for Wellbeing”.
- October 4 – Hope House, Shropshire – staff workshop – “Changes, Crossroads, and Consequences: Expanding and Enriching Caring Work”